January 2008

Dear Exhibitor:

As a strong and valued supporter of the Iowa Library Association, I am writing to invite you to join Neumann Monson PC, FEH Associates, Inc., Archival Products – Division of Library Binding Service, Davidson Titles, Inc. and others as an ILA corporate member.

We value your support and have developed a corporate membership structure that will increase the visibility of your corporation with our membership. Corporate members have these advantages:

- You are recognized on the ILA web site with a special web page listing our corporate members;
- You receive a plaque to display at your company headquarters;
- You are recognized at our Annual Conference; and
- You receive our newsletter, the CATALYST.

For more information, check out our web site at www.iowalibraryassociation.org.

Discounts on a conference exhibit booth, an ad in the conference program, and advertising in our newsletter are available depending on your corporate membership level. Corporate levels range from $125.00 to $1000.00 for calendar year membership.

More than 1,600 librarians, teacher librarians, support staff, friends and trustees from public, academic, school and special libraries in over 500 communities statewide comprise the Iowa Library Association. Your financial commitment will help Iowa's libraries and the more than one million Iowans who use them each year.

Mark your calendar and plan to attend the 2008 Iowa Library Association Annual Conference, October 15 – 16 in Dubuque. Please consider attending as an ILA corporate member.

Sincerely,

Barbara Peterson
